Technical and general regulations:

- Any person that registers, pays the entry fee, and is 18 years of age on the day the marathon takes place is a marathon participant.
- Each participant rides at their own risk.
- The organising authority shall not be held responsible for any damages incurred among the participants or the participants and third parties.
- A safety helmet is required for all marathon participants.
- Each marathon participant must have a form of ID.
- No vehicle escort is allowed (except for vehicles of the organising authority).
- The marathon will take place regardless of the weather conditions.
- Each marathon participant is also a road user and required to abide by traffic rules and regulations.
- All marathon participants must follow the instructions:
  - from the organising authority
  - from the course stewards
  - from the commissaries
  - from police officers at the course
- The Granfondo marathon course passes 2 railroad crossings, at the 62 km and 88.2 km marks. All participants shall abide by the signs that forbid crossing in case of an oncoming train. IT IS STRICTLY FORBIDDEN to cross the tracks if the crossing ramp is lowered.
- IT IS STRICTLY FORBIDDEN TO OVERTAKE THE LEADING VEHICLE OF THE ORGANISING AUTHORITY DURING THE CLOSED RIDE (riders that do not follow this instruction will not be included in the start list for the competitive part of the marathon).

- BY PICKING UP THE BIB NUMBER AND SHOWING UP AT THE START OF THE MARATHON, EACH PARTICIPANT ACCEPTS THE PROPOSITIONS OF THE ORGANISING AUTHORITY.

The overall winner of the marathon will be the competitor that crosses the finish line first. This applies to both marathon courses. The overall results of the other competitors and results by category will be sorted by finish time.

The results in the team category will be sorted by the finish times of the 3rd member of the team that crosses the finish line.

During the marathon, the organising authority will provide live tracking of the competitors on its web-site www.granfondo.hr. Competitors will be instructed on how to use the system when they pick-up their bib numbers and on the facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/granfondo.zagreb/>. Fans of the competitors will be able to track their progress at the start/finish line via monitors and a sound system.

The organising authority will make sure stationary and mobile stewards are present at the course, as well as assistance from the traffic police, and a service vehicle for escort, a medical escort, and vehicles that pick-up stragglers (broom wagons). Any cyclists that are overtaken by the broom wagon and continue cycling become part of regular traffic and must observe all traffic regulations and cycle only on the right side of the road.
